

Coffee Time Art

Break at 11am for coffee and art

Gayna Pelham, well known art historian and artist at the National Gallery, who has been working with U3A groups for over 8 years, is now running 2 online talks a week at 11am on Zoom.

The talks are open to all U3A members and their friends.

Join her for a knowledgeable, entertaining half hour on a wide range of art subjects.

“Gayna has a wonderful knack of communicating her knowledge and enthusiasm to her audience. She has a lightness of touch, coupled with extensive knowledge. She always seems to pitch her talks and tours at exactly the right level.”

U3A member, May 2020

Tuesdays at 11am from June 9th: 30 mins + time for questions

Art in Focus: each Tuesday at 11am a work of art will be looked at in depth to learn more about a specific artist and period.

Fridays at 11am from June 12th: 30 mins + time for questions

Inside Art: each Friday at 11am a different idea will be examined and decoded such as classical mythology, symbols in art, the golden section...

Monthly talk at 11am date tbc: 30 mins + time for questions

Bonus Talk: Exhibitions in London

The best “once in a lifetime” exhibitions in London over the last few years will be discussed and explored. Revisit these outstanding exhibitions for a fresh perspective.

Cost: £5 per talk

2 talks for £8

Invite a friend and their first talk is free

Please contact Gayna Pelham to join a talk and for payment details:

www.gaynapelham.com or gaynapelhamtalks@gmail.com

